

HOLYOAK AND TORREMANS: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW: FOURTH EDITION

SECTION A.

Introduction

1. Themes in intellectual property

SECTION B.

Patents

2. Origin, background and international aspects of the patent system
3. Patentability
4. Use and grant in the UK and Europe
5. Infringement and revocation
6. Supplementary protection certificates and the proposed utility model and community patent
7. Section B - an overview

SECTION C.

Copyright and related issues

8. Introduction to copyright
9. The various types of copyright and the quality issue
10. Qualification
11. The term of copyright
12. Authorship and ownership of copyright
13. Moral rights
14. Copyright infringement
15. Defences to copyright infringement
16. Rights in performances
17. Dealing in copyright
18. Copyright - an overview

SECTION D.

Designs

19. Designs and copyright
20. Registered designs
21. Unregistered designs
22. Designs - an overview

SECTION E.

Image rights

23. Trade marks - an introduction
24. Trade marks - trademarkability and use
25. Trade marks - infringement and revocation
26. Trade marks - European and international aspects
27. Tortious protection of intellectual property rights

SECTION F.

Issues in intellectual property

28. Confidentiality and trade secrets
29. Computer technology and intellectual property
30. Character merchandising
31. Franchising and intellectual property
32. Remedies in intellectual property litigation

Postscript

Index