INTERNATIONAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AFTER SARBANES-OXLEY

Preface.

Acknowledgments.

About the Editors.

About the Authors.

PART ONE: FRAMEWORK OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE.

Chapter 1. The Ethics of Corporate Governance: What would the Political Philosophers Say? (Colin Read).

Chapter 3. Governance and Performance Revisited (Øyvind Bøhren and Bernt Arne Ødegaard).

Chapter 4. Corporate Governance as a Process Oriented Approach to Socially Responsible Organizations (Marijan Cingula).

PART TWO: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND THE GLOBAL FINANCIAL MARKETS.

Chapter 7. Corporate Governance Reform in Australia: The Intersection of Investment Fiduciaries and Issuers (Martin Gold).

Chapter 9. Issuers Liability for Financial Information as an Instrument of Corporate Governance Enforcement (Clemens Völk).

PART THREE: SHARE OWNERSHIP AND SHAREHOLDER CONTROL RIGHTS.

Chapter 11. Ownership Structure Metrics (Stefan Prigge and Sven Kehren).

Chapter 12. The Effectiveness of Shareholders Meetings: An Overview of Recent Developments (Gregory F. Maassen and Darrell Brown).

PART FOUR: ACCOUNTABILITY OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVES.

Chapter 15. CEO Compensation in Australias Largest Companies (Geof Stapledon).

Chapter 17. Independent Directorship Systems in Greater China (Margaret Wang).

PART FIVE: RESPONSIBILITIES TO STAKEHOLDERS, AND OTHER EMERGING TRENDS IN CORPORATE GOVERNANCE.

Chapter 18. The Primary Stakeholder Relationships: Corporate Governance and Value Creation (Andrea Beretta Zanoni).

Chapter 19. Family Ownership and Corporate Governance (María Sacristán-Navarro and Silvia Gómez- Ansón).

Chapter 20. The European Social Model of Corporate Governance: Prospects for Success in an Enlarged Europe (Irene Lynch Fannon).

Chapter 22. Prospects and Limits of Corporate Governance Codes (Björn Fasterling).

Chapter 23. Assessing the Effectiveness of Boards of Directors and Individual Directors (Richard Leblanc).

References.

Index.